1. Officials of the Yugoslav Legation in Buenos Aires are currently optimistic concerning Argentine-Yugoslav relations, and they believe that the Gunja-Jakasa incident does not affect their present status. They have been encouraged by an alleged recent statement of President Peron to the Intransigent Radical, Farias Gomez, that Argentina would not break diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union if it were avoidable.
2. Officials of the Legation conclude that if Argentina must forcibly be under the economic and political influence of the United States, she will still play the Russians against the United States in order to obtain more concessions from the latter, and to demonstrate further her sovereignty.
